

STOKE GABRIEL BOATING ASSOCIATION

DATA PRIVACY POLICY

1. About this Policy

- 1.1 This policy explains when and why we collect personal information about our members and instructors, how we use it, how we keep it secure and subjects' rights in relation to it. The policy has been issued at this time (Feb 2018) in order to achieve compliance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), which comes into effect nationally in May 2018 and which must be reflected in certain SGBA Membership Forms etc, being issued this month.
- 1.2 We may collect, use and store personal data, as described in this Data Privacy Policy and as described in our processes when we collect data.
- 1.3 We reserve the right to amend this Data Privacy Policy from time to time without prior notice. Members will be informed through Newsletters and Minutes of appropriate meetings, but are anyway advised to check the SGBA website or our noticeboards regularly for any amendments (but amendments will not be made retrospectively).
- 1.4 We will always comply with the GDPR when dealing with personal data. Further details on the GDPR can be found at the website for the Information Commissioner (www.ico.gov.uk). For the purposes of the GDPR, we will be the "controller" of all personal data we hold.

4 How we protect personal data.

- 4.1 Data will be held on a PC managed and updated by officers of the Club. We will not transfer personal data outside the EEA without consent.
- 4.2 We have implemented generally accepted standards of technology and operational security in order to protect personal data from loss, misuse, or unauthorised alteration or destruction.
- 4.3 Members should note, however, that when transmitting information to us over the internet this can never be guaranteed to be 100% secure.
- 4.4 For any payments which we take online we will use a recognised online secure payment system.
- 4.5 We will notify promptly in the event of any breach of personal data which might expose any member to serious risk.

5. Who else has access to the information provided to us?

- 5.1 We will never sell personal data. We will not share personal data with any third parties without prior consent (which members are free to withhold) except where required to do so by law or as set out in the table above.

6. How long do we keep information?

- 6.1 We will hold personal data on our systems for as long as membership continues and for as long afterwards as is necessary to comply with our legal obligations (two years). We will review personal data every year to establish whether we are still entitled to process it. If we decide that we are not entitled to do so, we will stop processing that personal data except that we will retain it in an archived form in order to be able to comply with future legal obligations e.g. compliance with tax requirements and exemptions, and the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.
- 6.2 We securely destroy all financial information once we have used it and no longer need it.

7. Subjects' rights

- 7.1 Individuals whose data we hold have these rights under the GDPR.
 - (a) to access their personal data
 - (b) to be provided with information about how the personal data is processed
 - (c) to have personal data corrected
 - (d) to have personal data erased in certain circumstances
 - (e) to object to or restrict how personal data is processed
 - (f) to have personal data transferred to the subject or elsewhere in certain circumstances.

7.2 We will normally respond to data requests raised by members within 10 days.

7.3 Data Subjects have the right to take any complaints about how we process personal data to the Information Commissioner: <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/> 0303 123 1113. Information Commissioner's Office Wycliffe House Water Lane Wilmslow Cheshire SK9 5AF

7.4 For more details, please address any questions, comments and requests regarding our data processing practices to the SGBA Vice Commodore.
